

Three Phase, Step-by-Step Instructions for Jump Starting Your Future

These days it seems like everything is just a little more difficult, or not quite as well made, or more expensive, or harder to find, or discontinued, or downsized, or out sourced, or out of business. They just don't make 'em like they use to.

The times, they are a changin', to quote an old Bob Dylan song. It may be that we are just getting older, or, it may be something far more sinister. Whatever it is, we have found a way to combat our frustration, be pro-active, and supplement our incomes in the mean time. It can be done by simply shedding some light on the problems. Problems are like vampires...they don't like the light.

When one is involved in Network marketing, Phase One is to get to the first level. In the Silver Bear Cafe's program, the first level requires enlisting two members. The cost is only $125. So, for most people, the money shouldn't be the greatest hurdle to overcome. We have found that explaining the program is the trickiest part.

Phase One

Here's how you do it. First go to the Silver Bear Cafe's web site, (www.silverbearcafe.com), and start reading. There are over 4000 articles and essays posted there. Sure, you're not going to be interested in everything, but, if you just look around for a while, you are going to come across something that going to cause you to say: "What??? This isn't true, is it? I can't believe that the Government, or the Federal Reserve, or the Bankers, or whoever, is really doing this to us. That's not legal! That's unconstitutional! Why, that's just like stealing! This can't be true. Tell me it isn't so."

I promise that you will find something along those lines within thirty minutes of perusing the site. Whether it's 'The Coming Currency Devaluation', or the 'Blue plate Special', or 'Narco Dollars for Dummies', you will find one pretty quickly. Out of 4000, there are at least five hundred essays or articles that are tailor made for you. All you have to do is find one article that really gets your goat. That's step one.

Now go tell someone about that article. Tell them that you just found out something that you had no idea was going on. Tell them that you discovered a web site that is filled to the brim with articles and essays about how the powers that be are systematically screwing us. But that this web site has a solution to some of the problems. That you have found a club called the Silver Bear Cafe that has a program that allows it's members to make substantial sums of money by just shedding a light on those problems.

The other day I got an email from one of our members. His impassioned reaction to the web site caused him to express the following message.

“ I do not desire to fight. However I will not stand aside and do nothing which is in effect supporting ever expanding tyranny of organized crime in its myriad of guises i.e.; fedgov, fedreserve, irs, patriot act, etc.

I have recognized for quite some time that America is under attack from the inside and is, in fact, at war. Unfortunately most folks just do not realize it yet.

Constitutional America is well worth standing for, regardless the ubiquitous propaganda to the contrary.

Count me in and count me unrelenting! My conscience dictates that I will never give in to tyranny, here now or in the hereafter. I will spread the word. As you say, ‘The Truth is Out There’. Freedom is not only a choice, it is an action!”

Okay, so not everyone is quite so emotional. But the fact of the matter is; in this program, we are turning people on to a sickness that they don't even know that they have. An affliction that, if left unchecked, will cause them grave pain in the not so distant future. That the affliction is treatable and that you have the cure. The cure is not only painless, it is profitable. One of the quickest solutions to most people's problems is more money. The only solution to the problems that the American People face is public awareness. Let's kill two birds with one stone. Spreading the word must include a plea for a return to Constitutional Law. Who have you ever met that disagrees with the Constitution. Oh, there are a lot of people out there that wish it had never been written but, hopefully, you don't know any of those people. When you have accomplished conveying the above message to another person, you have completed step two.

Next, your potential new member must understand how he or she is going to prosper from this plan. This parts is easy. Either hand him a brochure or send him to the marketing web site, www.silverbearcafe.org. and have him read the “Introduction”. At the bottom of the introduction there is a link which will allow you to download the presentation in a PDF format so you can print up as many copies as you like. If you have a printed copy of the presentation, you can continue to pitch them without interruption, but, remember, it will require fifteen minutes of “quiet time” for your prospect to read and absorb the mechanics of the program. You will never sell anyone if they are confused about any aspect of the plan. Once they have read and understand the presentation, you have accomplished step three.

Did you know that if you sign up two new members in one week and they sign up two new members the next week, and so on, that in seven weeks from the time you get your first two members, you will make 86.75 pounds of silver, $20,000 in cash and $2 for every new member in your organization for the rest of your life? That’s less than two months. Go sign up two new members this week. The guy that signed you up will do every thing in his power to help you sign up two people. Just do it. When you do you will have finished Phase One.

Phase Two

The next step is to “clone” yourself. Whatever you did to accomplish your goal, you must pass on to both your enlistees. Whatever your sponsor helped you with, you must help them with. Suppose you had rented a table at a gun show and passed out several hundred brochures, and gotten ten new members. You have got to show those members how to get a table at a different gun show, or give one of them your table. How ever you get it done, it is imperative that you share your knowledge with your neophytes. You have to do what ever it takes to insure that your enlistees are successful in their recruitment goals. When you have helped them recruit their two, (or how ever many your collective ambitions prescribe), you will have finished Phase Two.

Phase Three

You have access to everyone in your downline through the Silver bear Cafe’s computer. By going to the “.org” site and logging in to the downline link, you can communicate with everyone in your organization whether you have ever met them or not. Simply introduce yourself as someone in their “upline” and let them know that you are there to help them in any way possible. Throw a party. Make sure that everyone knows all the “tricks of the trade”. This whole thing is like a railroad train. It takes some time to get it rolling, but once you get it started it is very hard to stop. The Silver Bear Cafe has a worthwhile, patriotic message that no one can deny. “The Truth Is Out There”. Help us spread the word and secure your future. Ordinary people can do extraordinary things. Do these things and complete Phase Three.

May the Great Spirit guide you always,
